

Dear Sir/ Madam,

I am writing on behalf of the great work of Robert Murch.

Robert's web-site WilliamFuld.Com gives a fascinating portrayal of a little known fact of American History. I'm a Fox Baltimore T.V. Anchor/Reporter, who recently needed Robert's help in obtaining background information on the history of the Ouija Board.

Even though Robert resides in Boston, Massachusetts and the Ouija Board's marvelous past takes place in my hometown, Robert's web-site checks and double checks historical accuracy. Robert's attention to every detail regarding the Ouija Board's history is astounding.

WilliamFuld.Com is full of fascinating facts, historical background, biographies of the key players involved in the manufacture and marketing of the Ouija Board (including William Fuld himself), and is loaded with well-preserved pictures.

William Fuld's descendants (many of whom reside in this area) have admitted to me that when they need to do some fact-checking about their own family, they consult Robert Murch.

Robert's enthusiasm with my recently aired report The Baltimore Oracle was priceless. Many times in the world of Television News, you need facts, figures and video "by yesterday".

Robert answered each and every one of my last minute calls with a great attitude in the face of last-minute deadlines.

And he always did it with more information than I needed.

He truly was a joy to work with. And his dedication to my needs regarding my story were unprecedented. Because of his valuable contribution to The Baltimore Oracle, we'll be entering the story in next year's Washington DC Emmy awards.

That could have never happened without Robert's input.

Sincerely,
