To Whom It May Concern:

I am the writer and researcher for the Ghost Adventures series on the Travel Channel. We brought Robert Murch down to Oklahoma City as an expert witness for a program we were filming that focused on the Ouija board.

Not only was Murch great to work with, but he helped our production by shipping down some historical boards with specific stories related to them that played into the topic of our episode.

He was completely professional, personable, and we would have him back in a heartbeat. Having also worked with Murch on other media projects over the years, I can tell you is he is always my go-to on anything related to talking boards. He knows the history, but can also make the esoteric points as well, giving audiences a well-rounded view.

I highly recommend him.

Sincerely,
